URBAN G. VOLK REPORTED MISSING

42 5745 Worked In Parker Restaurant Before Induction

Word was received here Monday that Private Urban G. Volk was listed by the War Department as Missing in action while serving with the United States forces in France. The news came as a severe shock to his parents and his many friends here, and especially to his wife who is a patient in a St. Louis hospital.

Pvt. Volk, a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Volk, of near Bogota, left Newton November 4, 1943 and had been overseas about seven months. Before entering the service he was employed for about five and a half years as a waiter at the Parker cafe.

Besides his wife and parents he has a baby daughter, Gloria Jean. He has one brother, Joe, in the navy, and another brother, Cornelius, serving in the Philippines under General MacArthur.
